"It was an excellent event providing the opportunity to listen straight from the vanguards of the cyber security domain. The insightful content, and the enlightened speakers. Very well done."

Senior Officer Information Security & Governance, Barwa Bank

"I would like to thank you for the successful, well organised event, and providing us the opportunity to interact with different solution providers under one roof. Attending the educational seminar about the new cybercrime techniques and innovative countermeasure solutions was wonderful and very informative. Arrangements and all sessions were very good, keep up the good work!"

Qatari Investors Group

"It was my pleasure to attend the e-Crime conference yesterday. Really it was one of the most important conferences and I would like to thank you for your time and the valuable information. Hope you can stay in touch and update us about your future professional events."
